Name Poem

You can write a poem by using a word and taking each letter of that word to begin a different line in your poem. This is called an Acrostic Poem. Put your name going down in the middle of the paper. Then think of a word or phrase beginning with that letter.

Now it's time to take your name
And write it in a row,
Make it fun, it's like a game
Every word will show.

Animal Poem

Think of an animal. Think of words that rhyme with your animal and make a list. Write a poem using the rhyming words. Now draw an outline of your animal and write your poem inside the animal.

Only put your outline of animal with poem inside the animal in your poem book. You do not need to put the list of rhyming words in your poem book.

Animal Poem

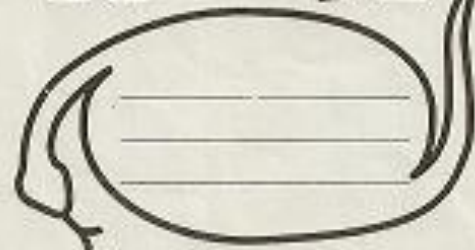

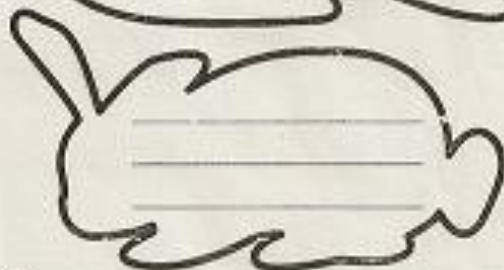

Look at the animal outlines below. Think of words that rhyme with each one. Write your list in the box beside the outline and write the poem inside the outline.

Example:

Rhyming Cat Words
cat	hat
fat	flat
sat
Rhyming Bunny Words
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
Rhyming Pig Words
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
Rhyming Snake Words
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

My cat is fat
and sat on my hat.
It's flat!

Extension: Draw a large outline of your favorite animal and write a poem on its shape. Can you find rhyming words for horse, puppy, cow, lamb, whale, or even hamster?

Limerick

A limerick is a five-line poem with a rhyme scheme of a-a-b-b-a (line 1, 2, 5 rhymes and line 3 and 4 rhymes). The limerick always has a funny/humorous tone.

Limerick

There once was a young man from Kew
Who found a dead mouse in his stew.
Said the waiter, “Don’t shout
Or wave it about,
Or the rest will want one too!”

There once was a seventh grade lad
Whose poems were exceedingly bad.
The only thing worse
Than his terrible verse
Were the ones that he learned from his dad.

Haiku

A haiku is a form of Japanese poetry, usually about nature.

The first line has 5 syllables.

The second line has 7 syllables.

The third line has 5 syllables.

Haiku

Wind, gently blowing
Up, around, and through the trees,
Plays tag with my kite

Ocean waves roll in,
Foam against the sandy shore,
Then slide back to sea

Japanese haiku
Captures a moment in time
Snapshot memory

Haiku has no rhyme
But has a special structure
To create within
