

The Very Last K2 News for 2011-2012!
Monday, May 21, 2012

Dear Families,

I cannot believe that the last week of kindergarten is here! Shazam! Where did the time go?

I procrastinated all weekend long – putting off writing this letter to you all – with a kind of “if I don’t write it, I won’t have to face it” attitude.

This was a WONDERFUL year and I will miss everyone so very much. Thank you for joining me in this journey!

Okay- Now back to business:

No Homework

Please help your kinder sing their “month” song!

Baccalaureate Mass –Tuesday at 5:00 pm at St. Bernadette’s Church

8th Grade Graduation – Wednesday at 5:00 pm in the gym

End of Year Program in K2 – Thursday, May 24th at 1:30 pm in K2

Charge up the camera and camcorder batteries as the kinders will sing their “top songs” from kindergarten. They will also receive a ‘moving up’ certificate!

Yes, younger siblings may come. Yes, grandparents are welcome. We will squeeze in all who show up. Please know that we cannot invite older PJ23 siblings (in other grades.)

We will have a special “DISMISSAL SIGN OUT SHEET” – when the program is over, you may take your kinderkid with you (or we will take them to dismissal and aftercare!)

Yearbooks

We will take time to sign yearbooks on THURSDAY AND FRIDAY. Please hold onto these treasured books until then. We have a bit of kinderwork to finish and signing the yearbooks may get in our way! Thanks for your help in this matter!

Friday is Noon Dismissal, which means 11:50 drive through dismissal for K!

On Friday, we will clean out our cubbies, mailboxes, and book boxes. We will be bringing home our work portfolios, too! Report cards will be mailed home the following week.

Your kinder will be bringing home some books that have “extra pages” that they may do over summer break (Singapore math and some empty journal pages.) The K Team will be posting the “Summer Skills Review” letter and suggestions for review work on the website – look for it later this week!

God bless you all! Joan B.
