

BERNARDS H.S. GIRLS SOCCER CAMP

The increasing level of High School soccer demands an intense, targeted preseason program. United Soccer Academy has designed a program that provides High School soccer players with the ideal introduction to the upcoming season.

The aim of the camp is to provide both an individually demanding camp and a structured team environment. The camp has been designed by High School coaches with the High School player and their team in mind.

The camp also incorporates the guidelines on High School age player development as set by U.S. Youth Soccer. We are confident that the quality of this camp will exceed players and coaches expectations.
