

You are a Sportscast team for a local SPANISH television station. You must find 3 different sporting events in SPANISH and prepare a brief newscast about each event. You will use Windows Movie Maker to describe the major highlights of the games or matches. The entire presentation must be in Spanish and should last approximately 2 minutes.

You must include the following:

- Vocabulario 1.2 (1B): repaso y nuevo
- El pretérito de los verbos que indican
 - Acción o serie de acciones terminadas
 - Acción completada a una hora específica
 - El comienzo o el fin de una acción
 - Una interrupción
- El imperfecto de los verbos que indican
 - Acción repetida o habitual
 - Una acción continua
 - Una descripción de un estado físico o mental
 - El tiempo, la hora, la fecha o la edad
- Expresiones claves de tiempo

The Jobs:

All students must participate in all phases of the creation of the Sportscast:

The Anchor: You are the main presenter. You are still responsible for all other portions of the project. You must help your group in researching and writing all phases of the newscast. You are responsible for the actual on air recorded presentation of your Sportscast. You will be the Sportscaster.

The Roving Reporter: You are in the field where the action takes place. You interview the participants. You are still responsible for all other portions of the project. You must help your group in researching and writing all phases of the newscast. You are responsible for the “on location” recorded presentation of your Sportscast.

The Athlete: You are in the field where the action takes place. You perform and respond to questions from the roving reporter. You are still responsible for all other portions of the project. You must help your group in researching and writing all phases of the newscast. You are responsible for the “on location” recorded presentation of your Sportscast.

The Editor\Technical Support: As the editor you are responsible for the quality of the presentation. Are all words and grammar used correctly? Use the other members of your group for quality control. As the technical support you need to assist the other students while filming. You should be familiar with Windows Movie Maker and able to help others in your group. Keep it school appropriate. You are responsible for the recorded presentation of the credits for your movie.
