

History in Film

Mr. Johnston

1. This course will critically analyze videos about eras of American history to determine fact from fiction. It will also address the change in films throughout the development of technology in our modern society. We will enquire about major concepts or events through today in an effort to determine how society portrays historical events through media.
2. You will be required to bring a pen or pencil, notebook or paper, assigned homework, and other necessary materials to class each day.
3. The grading scale for class is as follows:

100% - 90% = A

89% - 80% = B

79% - 70% = C

69% - 60% = D

59% - 0% = F

4. Points are earned by performance on various assignments, quizzes, tests, a final project, and final exam.
5. To be successful, all you have to do is:
  - a. Be in class, on time, with the necessary materials for class
  - b. Participate in activities and be respectful of everyone
  - c. Turn in your assignments
