

Nonverbal Skit

I. Objective: Your group will present a nonverbal skit to the class based on components that are randomly chosen. After presenting the skit, your peers will have to verbally reiterate what the skits plot scheme was.

II. Obligations:

- The skit should be one to two minutes.
- You will practice and perform the skit today in class. You will be given 20 minutes to prepare the skit.
- The order of which group will present will be randomly chosen.
- Everyone in the group must be in the skit.
- No one can use any props EXCEPT the following: a table, a chair, a desk(s)

III. Rubric:

Every member of the group has a distinct role in the skit ____/ 2

No members of the group used any props (besides the one's allowed) ____/2

No members of the group use any verbal queues during the skit ____/2

There is a definite beginning, middle, and end to the plot scheme of the skit ____/2

The skit is between one and two minutes ____ / 2

Total: ____ / 10 Points