Literature and Composition II
“Doing Nothing is Something”

Directions: Working in small groups, identify examples from “Doing Nothing is Something” as one of the rhetorical modes. You may not find three examples for each mode. You will find at least one example for each. Cite quotes in proper MLA format. Please have one person from the group “share” their document on Google Drive with me. (kanzalone@saintviator.com) Include all group members on the share.

Ethos	Pathos	Logos

1. Why or why not does your group agree with Anna Quindlen’s viewpoints about doing “nothing?”

2. What does the essay suggest about society’s values? What, then, needs to change in our society?
