

Circle One

1. As some characters in the book said, Gatsby had this coming.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Disagree

Strongly Disagree

2. Since Tom was innocent, it was acceptable for him to tell the gun-wielding Wilson that Gatsby was responsible.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Disagree

Strongly Disagree

3. A life centered on parties is a meaningless life.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Disagree

Strongly Disagree

4. A crime-based career, like bootlegging, has no honorable qualities.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Disagree

Strongly Disagree

5. The themes and issues of class, money, and greed in The Great Gatsby are still relevant today.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Disagree

Strongly Disagree

Who is the worst character in the book? (Worst morals.) Why?

Who is most responsible for Gatsby's downfall? Why?

