

Name_____

“The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County” as a Realist Text

Realism Quality	Connection in TCJFOCC
Representation of middle-class life
Character is often more important than action or plot; what details are given in the story that emphasize the character ?
Characters appear “real” and connected to their own experiences and social class
Events will be plausible
Diction is natural vernacular (the story is told in the way that people actually speak)

Dictionary of the Dialect of a Saint Viator Teen

In your group, come up with 5 words or phrases that are common to you and your peers, but you would need to explain to an outsider. (Keep these clean.) Define these below, and then come up with 5 original sentences that showcase your individual dialect.

Word 1:

Circle: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, or phrase

Definition:

Example:

Word 2:

Circle: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, or phrase

Definition:

Example:

Word 3:

Circle: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, or phrase

Definition:

Example:

Word 4:

Circle: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, or phrase

Definition:

Example:

Word 5:

Circle: noun, verb, adjective, adverb, or phrase

Definition:

Example: