

Practice Vocabulary #1 TEST

Matching definitions:

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| ___ altruistic | a. insolently proud |
| ___ ambivalent | b. to differentiate between two things |
| ___ arrogant | c. intense dislike |
| ___ aversion | d. a disliking |
| ___ discern | e. generous |
| ___ disdain | f. having contrary feelings |

- | | |
|---------------|---------------------------------|
| ___ disparage | a. to decorate |
| ___ disparity | b. inequality |
| ___ embellish | c. to praise |
| ___ engender | d. to speak badly about someone |
| ___ insipid | e. boring |
| ___ laud | f. to cause/produce |

Synonyms

- | | |
|--------------|-----------------|
| ___ cryptic | a. serene |
| ___ reserved | b. ostentatious |
| ___ adore | c. taciturn |
| ___ tranquil | d. obscure |
| ___ pompous | e. revere |

Antonyms

- | | |
|---------------|----------------|
| ___ necessary | a. subtle |
| ___ blunt | b. insipid |
| ___ candor | c. prodigal |
| ___ thrifty | d. superfluous |
| ___ zestful | e. reticence |

Fill in the blank

There future may be war filled or it may be _____.

The glasses Harrison wore caused his vision to be _____.

Hazel did not _____ long when Harrison died; she soon forgot why she was sad.

Diana was not _____; she was a selfish, dictator-like ruler.

Harrison had a strong _____ for the rules of his society, so he went against them.

Harrison was described as "Halloween and hardware," for he was _____(ed) with metal.

It was easy to _____ who was smart and who was not based on who wore radio transmitters.