

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde vocabulary, Part II

For each word, write the definition and a sentence.

parlay
pedantically
protégé
qualm
relish
vicarious repugnance
epitome despondency
incongruous
premonitory
penitence exhilarated
dispirited intractable
furtive alleviate trite

Across

2. ecstatic, the thrill of victory
4. one who is too concerned with or shows off his learning; bookishly; scholastically
5. soothe, calm, relieve
9. ideal example
11. a feeling of extreme disgust or dislike
12. one under the care and protection of an influential person
13. a liking for or enjoyment of something because of the pleasure it gives
15. a bet on two or more successive events at once, with the winnings of one, plus the original stake, to be risked on the next
16. a misgiving about what one is going to do
17. a feeling of dejection or sadness

Down

1. feeling sorrow for sins or offenses
3. stubborn, inflexible, hard to budge
6. experienced imaginatively or sympathetically; endured or done by one person substituting for another
7. covert, stealthy, clandestine
8. despondent, dejected
10. inappropriate or out of place; inconstant; conflicting
14. trivial, commonplace
15. a feeling that something is about to happen

