

“Does someone afflict you child? It need not be a woman, mind you, or a man. Perhaps some bird invisible to others comes to you – perhaps a pig, a mouse, or any beast at all” (41).

-Reverend Hale

*How does this question from Act One play an important role in Act Three?

“I – cannot faint now, sir” (106).

-Mary Warren

*Why does this answer from Mary Warren really harm her attempt to tell the truth?

“I say – I say – God is dead!” (119)

*What does John Proctor mean here?
Why would he say that at the end of Act
Three?

“I denounce these proceedings, I quit
this court!” (120)
-Reverend Hale

*How does this show a change in the character of Reverend Hale?
