Study Guide for 11th Grade Final Exam (Mrs. Dolhon)

Things you should know and be able to recognize in literature:

Analyzing text: literature and informational text Revising and editing main ideas/central ideas

summary
allusion
repetition
varied rhythm/rhyme
figurative language
personification
simile
metaphor

Ways to Organize:

by list
compare contrast
order of importance
chronological sequencing

Grammar:

prepositional phrases
run-ons
modifiers
misplaced modifiers
dangling modifiers
compound/complex sentence punctuation formulas
subject-verb agreement Parallel structure
case of personal pronouns

cause-effect relationships compare contrast relationships point-by-point relationships time-order relationships Theme/thematic statement