TIMELINE

You may choose to frame/ "mat" your pages before putting them on your board by gluing them onto construction or scrapbooking paper first. You may also add more photos or items that relate to your person on your board, this sample only includes required elements and a suggestion for layout. You may choose to lay out your items differently, as long as it looks neat, attractive, and well-organized it will be fine...you may be creative. Don't forget to label the pieces of your report & include a title at the top. If you choose to add extra pictures or items, you may want to write a small "caption" telling about it. Do not do final drafts in PENCIL as we won't be able to read them. Final drafts should be typed!!!!
