

Name _____
Period _____ Date _____

Sexuality : A Gift with Strings Attached

Read the article in your binder and then respond to the following questions.

1. If you use the gift of sexuality properly, you will be _____,
_____, and _____.
2. This article isn't so much a sex talk as a(n) _____. Why?
3. What is the point of the $20 bill story? How does it relate to our attitudes toward ourselves?
4. What is the attitude of Jesus toward those who have made mistakes?
5. Why does the article describe sex as good?
6. "Sexual Activity is meant for good." List 2 ways sex might be used for "bad" and what 4 of the outcomes of sex should be if it is meant "for good."
Bad:

Good:
7. List a couple of examples of reasons for having sex that are self-centered rather than loving.
8. Make a brief list here of all those people who love you enough to sacrifice for you.

9. Why does the article explain that sexual expression should be only for those relationships where someone loves you enough to sacrifice for you?

10. What does sexual activity express more than love?

11. Why does the author use the example of re-gifting an expensive necklace to various relatives as an example of # 10.

12. How did the author compare a boy's body to a pipe of his grandfather's?

13. Do you agree with this comparison? Why or why not?

14. Why are there so many "rules" about sexual activity? (see the q and a at the bottom of pg.72.)

15. Why is chastity both an attitude and an act? (box "Voices of Wisdom on Sex")