

Hello,
I am Gilles Alessia, I'm 15 years old.
I am from Nantes (France). I am original from Ivory Coast and France. I have one brother and one sister, I am living with my mom, my step-father and my siblings.

At first glance I may seem closed but don't worry I love discussing with new people, however I don't approach others easily. I know it's contradictory sorry. I find the best conversation is about personal projects, world views and debates. My favorite season is the winter thanks to Christmas and because I like the mood, with the rain, hot chocolates and large throws! But I like the summer too, because we can see eat a lot of fruits, my skin look better and we can stay outside longer but sometime I really hate because it's too hot.

This year I'm not doing a sport but during 8 years I was played basketball (I stopped this year). I cook everytime and I love try new recipes. I don't have a lot of hobbies. I love watch R-drama. I really love to sleep and eat. I eat literally everytime and I prefer salty because I find it more consistent. And I loveee listening music (like gospels or RnB).

The school it's complicated, at the beginning I found that easy, I was like it's good if it's like that until higher education. But no, no, I discovered the difficulties of school recently, it's ok, it's make the life more interesting and I love the library. I want be a cosmetic engineer but I'm not sure.

I hope everything is good for you and I hope we get along really well!
Good bye!

Aléssia, your correspondent!
