

A Doll's House

Leeshy Lichtman & Melanie Candelario

1) In what ways is Torvald caged by societal expectations?

2) Can the Helmers' marriage be salvaged? Why or why not?

3) Is the destruction of the Helmers' marriage a good thing?

4) Are there any moments in the play where the men defy the gender roles prescribed for them by society?

5) What is the significance of the title?

6) How does the concept of home change over the course of the play?

7) Why is the scandal so scary for Torvald?

8) In what ways do the women in the play display concern or lack of concern for their reputations?

9) In what ways is Nora's love for Torvald similar to her love for her father? How is it different?

10) What is the relationship between money and power in the play?