

10. What is the correct medical term for a woman's monthly period?
11. What is the singular and plural for "egg" (the correct medical term)?
12. Define menarche?
13. When does menarche occur?
14. Define menopause.
15. When does menopause occur?
16. When an ovum develops and prepares for ovulation, it becomes what?
17. Give the word for the following:
rupture of the follicle and entrance of the egg into the fallopian tube
18. How often does #17 above occur?
19. When, during the menstrual cycle, does #17 occur?
20. For each of the following stages of labor, what occurs?
 - a. Stage 1
 - b. Stage 2
 - c. Stage 3

21. Label the drawing below:

22. What are the male reproductive organs called?
23. What is a single male reproductive organ called?
24. What is the hormone needed for male sexual characteristics?
25. What is needed to fertilize the woman's egg?
26. What is the material in #25 above mixed with to help it travel through and out the male reproductive tract?

27. What is the structure that is located on top and alongside the testes? What does it do?
28. Trace the path of sperm through the male reproductive tract beginning with the testicles and ending with the urinary meatus.
29. What is the medical term for the foreskin?
30. What is the medical term for the end of the penis that is covered by the foreskin?
31. Label the diagram of the male reproductive system.

Pathology

1. Define the following terms (break the word parts into their individual meanings:
 - a. dysmenorrheal
 - b. metrorrhagia
 - c. menorrhagia
 - d. amenorrhea
2. What is PMS?
3. What are the symptoms of PMS?
4. What is TSS?
5. What causes TSS?
6. How can a woman get TSS?
7. What are the two names for a common benign tumor of the uterus?
8. What is the disorder that causes monthly bleeding in the abdominal cavity because of uterine cells that are misplaced outside of the uterus?
9. What is the surgical treatment of # 7 & 8 above?
10. What are four signs of any inflammation?