

Study Questions for Chapter 2

1. Know the reproductive of the male
2. Know the reproductive of the female
3. What are the accessory glands and the functions for male and female
4. What are the functions of the vagina
5. What is the purpose, anatomy of the uterus
6. What are the functions of the fallopian tubes
7. Know the functions of the ovaries and the hormones involved and what they control
8. What are the components of the pelvis
9. What are the functions of the pelvis
10. What are the types of pelvis and which are more desirable for birthing and which is least desirable
11. Know the difference between a true and false pelvis
12. Know the breasts are composed of and how milk is stored
13. Be knowledgeable about the different hormones and where they are released from and what they help to control
14. Know about oxytocin and how it works