

Nom _____

Classe _____ Date _____

WRITING ACTIVITIES

1. Le, la ou l'?

Write le, la, or l' in front of the following nouns, as appropriate.

► la copine

1. le garçon

3. la fille

5. le copain

7. le prof: M. Lenoir

2. le monsieur

4. l' ami

6. l' amie

8. la prof: Mme Dupin

2. Photos de vacances

Last summer you went on an international camping trip and took pictures of some of your friends. Give each person's name and nationality.

► Il s'appelle Jim.

Il est anglais.

Elle s'appelle Susan.

Elle est américaine.

Elle s'appelle Isabelle.

Elle est française.

Il s'appelle Patrick.

Il est canadien.

FLASH culturel

In the United States, there are many places that have names of French origin. Which of the following states is named after a French king?

☐ Georgia

☐ North Carolina

☒ Louisiana

☐ Virginia

→ page 20

Nom _____

Classe _____ Date _____

3. Loto

Imagine that you are playing Loto in France. The following numbers have been called. Read them carefully and put an "X" on the numbers that appear on your Loto card.

soixante-treize	soixante-quatre	quatorze	cinquante-trois	huit
quatre-vingt-douze	vingt-trois	quatre-vingt-neuf	soixante-quinze
cinquante-huit	trente-sept	quarante-cinq	soixante-quatorze	seize
vingt et un	quatre-vingt-six	soixante-dix-huit	quatre-vingt-un

Which row did you complete to win Loto: the top, the middle, or the bottom?

The top row.

Now write in digits the numbers that were not on your card.

14 16 23 37 58 75 89

		21		45			73	81	92
	17				53		74	86	95
8			39			64	78		99

4. Communication: Dialogues

Complete the following mini-dialogues by filling in the missing words.

- Philippe est français?
—Non, il est canadien.
- Tu connais le garçon là-bas?
—Oui, c'est un (mon) copain.
- Comment s'appelle la prof?
—Elle s'appelle Madame Vallée.

FLASH culturel

Louisiana was named in honor of the French king Louis XIV (1638–1715). Louisiana was once a French colony and extended up the entire Mississippi basin. The U.S. purchased it from France in 1803. Today, French is still spoken in the state of Louisiana by some people in the "Cajun" areas.

