

Chapter 11 Section 2 (1st 3 subheadings)

1. What fraction of white families in 1840 owned slaves?
2. Who invented a machine for cleaning cotton in 1793?
3. Which direction did cotton farmers move as a result of the invention of the cotton gin?
4. As a slave child, what kind of games did Catherine Beale play?
5. By the 1830s, how much cotton was being exported from the Southern states?
6. With what machine could one worker now clean as much as 50 pounds of cotton a day?
7. Who, though they owned few ~~or no~~ slaves, supported slavery and hoped to buy slaves someday?
8. When would it become illegal to import Africans to the U.S. for use as slaves?
9. What happened to Native Americans as the spread of slavery increased?
10. How did cotton growing and slave owning become with the advent of the cotton gin?

Chapter 11 Section 2
(1ST 3 sub headings)

C 1. one third

G 2. Eli Whitney

H 3. West

J 4. No games

B 5. $200 million

E 6. cotton gin

I 7. most white Southern farmers

A 8. after 1808

F 9. they were driven off their land

D 10. more profitable