

Chapter 13 Section 1 (1st 3 subheadings)

1. What term means to buy something in the hope that it will increase in value?
2. Whose explorations provided Americans with some of the earliest firsthand knowledge of the Far West?
3. What trading arrangement was created between mountain men and eastern traders?
4. Who besides Jedediah Smith became famous as rugged mountain men?
5. Who had their face shredded and had one ear partially tore off by a grizzly bear?
6. Who hoped to earn money by "making" things that farmers needed?
7. What was a result of silk hats replacing fur hats?
8. What wide valley, publicized by Jedediah Smith, was used by pioneers to cross the Rockies?
9. Jim Beckwourth, a former slave, once lived with what Native American tribe?
10. Why would Jedediah Smith go days at a time without eating?

Chapter 13 Section 1
(1st 3 subheadings)

D 1. speculate

A 2. mountain men

H 3. rendezvous system

F 4. Jim Beckwourth

B 5. Jedediah Smith

G 6. manufacturers

I 7. fur trade died out

C 8. South Pass

J 9. Crow

E 10. help people in need