

Chapter 16 Section 3
(1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

1. What Southern general fought against General Grant at the Battle of Shiloh?
2. Admiral Farragut captured what very important Southern city?
3. Who, in the summer of 1861 was given command of the Union army in the East?
4. Besides Fort Donelson, what other location did Grant capture on the Tennessee river?
5. After Grant and Farragut's victories what goal had the Union almost accomplished?
6. Who had three horses shot out from under him during the Battle of Shiloh?
7. Who was the victorious Union general in the West?
8. Because of the high casualty rate many in Congress wanted to get rid of Grant, but who said, "I can't spare this man—he fights"?
9. Approximately how many total casualties, from the North and South, were there at the Battle of Shiloh?
10. Because General McClellan was not moving fast enough in using the army, Lincoln said he had what?

Chapter 16 Section 3
(1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

F 1. General Albert S. Johnston

A 2. New Orleans

I 3. General George McClellan

B 4. Fort Henry

J 5. cutting the Confederacy in two

D 6. General Sherman

H 7. General Ulysses S. Grant

E 8. Lincoln

G 9. 24,000

C 10. "the slows"