

Chapter 17 Section 4 (All subheadings)

1. At a play, five days after the war had ended, who shot and killed President Lincoln?
2. What new addition to the U.S. Constitution ended slavery in the United States?
3. In the late 1800s what began to replace farming as the basis of the national economy?
4. What new cemetery, to bury Union dead, was established in Virginia?
5. Besides President Lincoln and his Secretary of State, who else was to be assassinated?
6. After the war the South accounted for what percent of the nation's wealth?
7. After the war what did people refer to the United States as being?
8. What is considered the deadliest war in American history?
9. Where were many African Americans still enslaved after the war?
10. What former slave and later famous educator and reformer had the Emancipation Proclamation read to him at a plantation?

Chapter 17 Section 4 (All subheadings)

- C 1. John Wilkes Booth
- F 2. Thirteenth Amendment
- E 3. Industry
- J 4. Arlington National Cemetery
- B 5. Vice-President Johnson
- G 6. 12 %
- I 7. single nation
- H 8. Civil War
- A 9. Border States
- D 10. Booker T. Washington