

Chapter 4 Section 1

(1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

1. Besides timber, what was another of New England's valuable articles of trade?
2. The practice of growing just enough food for one's self is known as what?
3. What is the term for the colonial area that ran along the Appalachian Mountains?
4. From where did early colonists get oil to fuel their lamps?
5. New England farm houses often surrounded what on the green central square?
6. What colonial area had long winters, the largest population, and rocky soil?
7. What colonial area had a warm climate and good soil and used enslaved Africans to work?
8. From what trees were New England ships made?
9. What colonial area had a warm climate, good soil, and attracted many immigrants?
10. What was the "...great pasture..." that one New Englander referred to?

Chapter 4 Section 1
(1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

E 1. fish

G 2. subsistence farming

H 3. Backcountry

C 4. whales

F 5. meetinghouse

I 6. New England

B 7. Southern Colonies

J 8. oak and pine

A 9. Middle Colonies

D 10. Atlantic Ocean