

Chapter 4 Section 2 (1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

1. What cash crop did the fast growing Middle Colonial cities of New York and Philadelphia grow?
2. Where did millers crush grain between heavy stones to produce flour or meal?
3. Besides the Dutch, who brought advanced agricultural methods to the Middle Colonies?
4. As what did Elizabeth Ashbridge, and thousands other like her, come to the colonies?
5. What was considered the fastest growing colonial city?
6. What provided most of the power for the mills built along rivers?
7. Who came, from all over Europe, to take advantage of the Middle Colonies productive land?
8. Besides flour, bread, and furs, what else was used for trade in the colony of New York?
9. What religious group helped to create a climate of tolerance and acceptance in the Middle Colonies?
10. What provided excellent access to the colonial cities of New York and Philadelphia?

Chapter 4 Section 2
(1st ✓ 3 subheadings) Part 1

D 1. grain

I 2. gristmills

A 3. Germans

H 4. indentured servant

F 5. Philadelphia

G 6. water wheel

B 7. immigrants

J 8. whale oil

c 9. Quakers

E 10. harbors