

Chapter 4 Section 4 (First 3 subheadings) Part 1

1. Backcountry settlers paid for goods using what for currency?
2. Besides poverty, for what other reason did the Scots-Irish come to America?
3. To prove that England's future lay to the west who led an expedition over the Blue Ridge Mountains in 1716?
4. What mountain range stretches from eastern Canada to Alabama?
5. What term is used to describe large groups of Scots-Irish families?
6. What type of shelter did farmers build in the backcountry?
7. What term is used to describe where waterfalls prevent large boats from moving any further upriver?
8. Although life was very harsh, where did many families choose to move by the late 1600s?
9. What term describes a broad plateau that leads beyond the fall line to the foot of the mountains?
10. What new group of people, in the 1700s, began to move into the backcountry?

Chapter 4 Section 4
(1ST 3 subheadings) Part 1

E 1. deerskins

D 2. crop failures

H 3. Alexander Spotswood

F 4. Appalachian Mountains

G 5. clans

B 6. log cabins

I 7. fall line

J 8. Backcountry

A 9. piedmont

C 10. Scots-Irish