

Chapter 5 Section 3 (1st 3 subheadings) Part 1

1. The seeds for the French and Indian War were planted when British fur traders began moving into where in the 1750s?
2. Besides the OHIO River valley and the entire Great Lakes region, where else did France claim land in America?
3. For what did the French and English compete in America?
4. What finally decided who would control the northern and eastern parts of North America?
5. Besides North America, on what other continent ^{were} the French and English fighting?
6. What ^{stretching} did the French build to protect their region from Canada to Louisiana?
7. Besides Montreal, what other settlement did the French build along the St. Lawrence River?
8. What between Europeans and Native Americans led to their involvement in each other's wars?
9. Who was ordered to build a fort, on land claimed by the French, at the head of the OHIO River?
10. In the French and Indian War France was fighting against what European nation?

Chapter 5 Section 3
(Last 5 subheadings) Part 1

C 1. OHIO River valley

E 2. Mississippi River valley

I 3. furs

D 4. The French and Indian War

H 5. Europe

J 6. forts

B 7. Quebec

F 8. alliances

A 9. George Washington

G 10. Britian (England)