

Chapter 5 Section 3 (Last 5 subheadings) Part 2

1. What British victory marked the turning point of the French and Indian War?
2. What British law was issued that forbade colonists from settling west of the Appalachian Mountains?
3. What officially ended the French and Indian War?
4. Benjamin Franklin proposed that all colonies band together, against the French, under what plan?
5. In defeat, who did George Washington fight under while trying to take Fort Duquesne from the French?
6. In 1757, what new British leader was determined to win the war in the colonies?
7. What had officially begun on July 3, 1754 as a result of a French attack on Washington's men at Fort Necessity?
8. During Pontiac's Rebellion, what deadly gift did British officers present to Native American war leaders?
9. The British refusal to give supplies to Native Americans and their reply by attacking English settlers resulted in what?
10. French people of Nova Scotia eventually came to live where and be called Cajuns?

Chapter 5 Section 3
(Last 5 subheadings)

- D 1. The Battle of Quebec
- J 2. The Proclamation of 1763
- I 3. The Treaty of Paris 1763
- B 4. The Albany Plan of Union
- G 5. General Braddock
- F 6. William Pitt
- C 7. The French and Indian War
- H 8. Smallpox - infected blankets
- A 9. Pontiac's Rebellion
- E 10. Louisiana