

Chapter 7 Section 2

(Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

1. What African American, who was captured by the British, became famous for his efforts to end slavery?
2. George Rogers Clark's victories gave the Americans a hold on the vast region between what two bodies of water?
3. What British post on the Mississippi River did George Rogers Clark win without a fight?
4. What American naval hero won a famous sea battle against the British warship Serapis?
5. What American patriot fought the American Revolution on the Western frontier?
6. To whom did America give permission to attack enemy merchant ships?
7. John Paul Jones commanded what warship that was sunk in battle?
8. What British commander was known as the "Hair Buyer" because he paid rewards for American scalps?
9. What was the name of the first combat submarine?
10. Because of the capture of hundreds of British ships, what group called for an end to the war?

Chapter 7 Section 2
(Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

D 1. James Forten

J 2. Great Lakes and Ohio River

C 3. Kaskaskia

H 4. John Paul Jones

E 5. George Rogers Clark

I 6. Privateers

B 7. Bonhomme Richard

F 8. Henry Hamilton

G 9. Turtle

A 10. British merchants