

Chapter 7 Section 3 (127 two subheadings) Part 1

1. What British victory, in South Carolina, caused American spirits to fall to a new low?
2. What term means large guns and cannon?
3. Besides supposed Loyalists support and expectations of large numbers of slaves joining the British army, what third reason was there for Britain invading the South?
4. What did the British believe most Southerners were?
5. Small bands of fighters who weaken the enemy with surprise raids and hit-and-run tactics are called ...
6. Why were cannons sponged?
7. Georgia named a county after what American patriot?
8. Americans lost almost their entire Southern army when what city surrendered?
9. What was the real name of a patriot leader called the "Swamp Fox"?
10. What was the accurate range of a cannon in the 1700's?

Chapter 7 Section 3
(1st two subheadings) Part 1

J 1. Camden

F 2. artillery

A 3. Closer seaports to the West Indies

I 4. Loyalists

E 5. Guerrillas

G 6. to extinguish sparks

B 7. Nancy Hart

C 8. Charles Town

H 9. Francis Marion

D 10. 1,000 yards