

Chapter 7 Section 3
(Last two subheadings) Part 2

1. What was the last major battle of the American Revolution?
2. What is one called who is opposed to war?
3. Where did most of the Revolution take place in 1781?
4. What military fighting on the border of North and South Carolina resulted in the slaughter of almost 1,000 British soldiers?
5. What military leaders trapped Cornwallis on a peninsula?
6. After the American defeat at Camden, who was placed in charge of the Southern American Army?
7. What British prime minister said "It is all over!" when he learned of the British surrender at Yorktown?
8. By the end of the sixth year of the war, what were some British leaders thinking?
9. Who kept the British navy from receiving supplies and escaping from the Chesapeake Bay?
10. On what date did Cornwallis surrender to the Americans?

Chapter 7 Section 3
(Last two subheadings) Part 2

- B 1. Yorktown
- G 2. pacifist
- A 3. Virginia
- E 4. Battle of Kings Mountain
- J 5. Washington and Rochambeau
- F 6 Nathanael Green
- C 7. Lord North
- I 8. American independence would not be so bad
- H 9. French navy
- D 10. October 19, 1781