

Chapter 7 Section 4 (all subheadings)

1. Who started the Free African Society which encouraged African Americans to help each other?
2. What form of government stated that the people rule the government?
3. In place of money what did the U.S. government give some soldiers for their service in the war?
4. What officially ended the American Revolution?
5. Who sued for freedom, in court, and won and helped end slavery in her state?
6. Besides better leadership, motivation, and knowledge of the land, what other advantage did Americans have during the war?
7. How many British and Americans died during the war?
8. What was the first condition of the Treaty of Paris 1783?
9. Besides willingness to make sacrifices and duty, what other virtue were colonial children to be taught?
10. What were the eastern and western boundaries of the United States after the Revolutionary War?

Chapter 7 Section 4
(All subheadings)

C 1. Richard Allen

G 2. republicanism

D 3. certificates for land

H 4. The Treaty of Paris 1783

E 5. Elizabeth Freeman

B 6. foreign aid

F 7. 35,700

I 8. The United States are independent

J 9. honesty

A 10. Atlantic Ocean and Mississippi River