

Chapter 8 Section 1 (Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

1. What law described how the Northwest Territory was to be governed?
2. An uprising of farmers in Massachusetts came to be known as what?
3. What was a critical problem for the national government after the American Revolution?
4. A territory could apply for statehood when it had how many people in its area?
5. What did the national government not have the power to do?
6. With what were many jails in Massachusetts packed?
7. What law called for surveyors to stake out six square mile plots, called townships, in the Western lands?
8. The national government depended on whom to send money to Congress?
9. What area formed land that included the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, and part of Minnesota?
10. Who besides Congress was experiencing economic crisis in the 1780s?

Chapter 8 Section 1 (Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

D 1. Northwest Ordinance

A 2. Shay's Rebellion

H 3. debt

B 4. 60,000

I 5. levy taxes

F 6. debtors

G 7. Land Ordinance of 1785

C 8. states

J 9. Northwest Territory

E 10. citizens