

Chapter 9 Section 2 (Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

1. What action did Britain take that made it difficult for Americans to stay neutral?
2. In what port city did Spain allow Americans to store goods without paying customs duties?
3. With what did farmers trade for salt, sugar, and other goods?
4. In what agreement did Britain say they would pay for damages to U.S. ships?
5. What, in the summer of 1794, did a group of farmers stage in western Pennsylvania?
6. By using the military to put down the Whiskey Rebellion, Washington proved that the government had the power to _____ its laws.
7. What term did Washington use when choosing not to take sides with other nations?
8. What revolution in Europe, patterned after the American Revolution, became very violent?
9. How were crops, such as wheat and rye, more easily carried to market?
10. In what agreement with Spain did Americans gain the right to travel, freely, on the Mississippi River?

Chapter 9 Section 2
(Last 3 subheadings) Part 2

- D 1. seized our ships
- E 2. New Orleans
- C 3. whiskey
- B 4. Jay's Treaty
- A 5. Whiskey Rebellion
- F 6. enforce
- H 7. neutral
- I 8. French Revolution
- G 9. put into liquid form
- J 10. Pinckney's Treaty