

Name_____

Period_____ Date_____

The Fourth Commandment
Film: The Human Experience

1. Before viewing the film, what is your personal definition of family?
2. For Jeff, what is the connection between "fitting in" and family?

Experience One - Living on the streets

3. Explain why marginalization opposes the concept of family.
4. Why is role-playing so important in forming relationships with others?

8. When people view themselves as having an indispensable contribution to the world, they relish and celebrate life more. Why do you think this is so?

Experience Three - AIDS/HIV and the leprosy colony

9. Explain the meaning of these quotes:

"Life is sacred, that is to say, it is the supreme value, to which all other values are subordinate".

"Suffering is a journey deep into the heart of life."

"Compassion and love are born out of suffering."

10. Jeff and Cliff's time spent with the people suffering from leprosy revealed that these people had a remarkable sense of dignity. What are the qualities of genuine dignity?

11. What is the domestic church?

12. Why is the family invaluable to society?

13. Why is it so important and meaningful for Jeff to reunite with his father?

14. Now that you viewed the movie, what is a good definition of family?

15. Explain what message you take from the film. Give at least one concrete example from the film.