

Name _____

Period _____ Date _____

Notes for Video: Teen Relationships and Sexual Pressure

Use this worksheet to remember the ideas presented in this video. You will be responsible for ALL the ideas presented for the unit test and for written work this unit. If you need more space, feel free to use the back or sides of this sheet.

Introduction with Jason:

1. What does he say (even before the video formally begins) is the purpose of their presentation?

In the Auditorium: (Jason is first)

2. Jason presents a “bit” about a “girl” named “Sha-nae-nae.” His point was that we need to switch our thinking about the opposite sex from _____ to _____. Explain what he meant.
3. What two things do we all want as young people? Describe these two things:

Ellen’s Intro:

4. Is it likely that you will marry a person that you know in high school?
5. Will our requirements for the person we are dating / in a serious relationship with change over the next 4 – 8 years? Why or why not?
6. The Mercedes-Benz (Adam) story: What is the message here?
7. What is the problem with compromising your values for the person you are seeing or even (maybe) in love with?

Part III: Jason for the second time:

8. He shares a good bit of history from his high school years: Why did he have an “empty hole” in his life? How did he fill that hole?
9. In a way, do we all have empty holes even if they are not as large as his? Why or why not?
10. According to Jason, why does porn harm our relationships?
11. What is absent from a relationship that becomes sexual right from the start?
12. What is the point of Jason discussing the passion of Jesus?
13. How am I supposed to “empty myself” for my beloved? Give an example from real relationships you are aware of in your life.
14. What has God stamped into the hearts of men?
15. Do you agree? Why?
16. Explain what is meant by “if we cannot say ‘no’ to sex then what is our ‘yes’ worth?”

PART IV: Ellen: Girls love it when guys love them for who they are:

17. Draw what is in Ellen's pyramid:

18. Name at least three of the problems that come from starting a relationship with sex rather than with communication or trust.

19. Why is it good to have trust as a foundation in a relationship?

20. How can sex prevent communication in a dating relationship?

21. What does it mean to love for "all the right reasons"?

Part V: Jason's turn to talk about girls:

22. What three things do girls do that "shoot themselves in the foot?" After each, explain whether you agree or disagree:

a.

b.

c.

23. Why is our conscience like that dog that alerts the owner of the burglar in the bushes? What should we learn from this example?

Part VI: Ellen's comments; Jason's final talk

24. Ellen's story about her niece is sad, but she tells it for a reason in this talk. What is her message?

25. Name the four incurable STD's.

1.

2.

3.

4.

26. Why does Jason need to inform his audience about these?

27. Jason talks about "emptying oneself for the other." Why is this so important?

28. How does emptying oneself contribute to loving someone?

29. Why does Jason end his talk with the story of the Armenian father in the earthquake? What is the message of this final story?

YOUR PART: Look over your notes. What idea had the most impact for you? Why?