

Unit Test Review: Prayer

Write the classic definition of prayer:

Fill in the types of prayer based on the acronym ACTS:

A _____

C _____

T _____

S _____

If vocal prayer is to be effective you must _____.

Essay: Answer each question fully, based on the notes from class and our discussion of the notes. Use complete sentences.

Why is “talking to God” not a full definition of the word prayer? Explain with an example of another aspect of the definition of prayer.

What is your “heart,” Biblically speaking?

Be able to list, define, give the Biblical model for, and explain how you would use one of the essential attitudes for prayer.

Terms to know:

- novena
- Forty Hours
- First Friday
- meditation
- contemplation
- the rosary
- misconception
- vocal prayer

- conversion
- all of the “essential attitudes for prayer, their definition and biblical example, and how each can appear in your own prayer life

- centering prayer
- lectio divina
- Ignatian scriptural prayer

All the questions from the quiz on Monday are fair game for the test!

Skills:

Match the prayer postures in the chart from Chapter 35 with their significance as given in the notes.

Match the 4 types of prayer (ACTS) with both a definition and an example given in our notes on prayer types.

What are the 4 sets of mysteries of the rosary? List them.