

Name _____ Per _____

174-179

Liturgical Seasons – Text. pp. ~~130-143~~

1. Advent (means _____)

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

2. Christmas

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

3. Ordinary Time 1

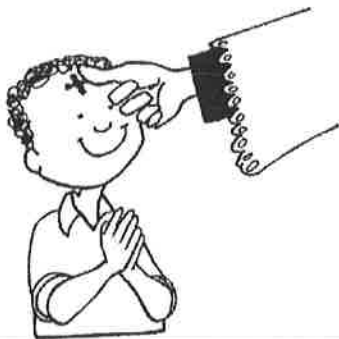

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

4. Lent: Begins on _____

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

Holy Week: _____

Triduum (Latin for _____)

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

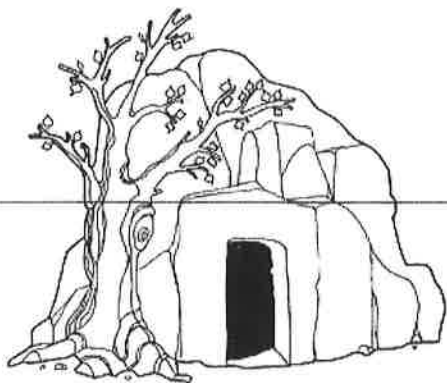

Holy Thursday

Good Friday

Holy Saturday

Name _____ Per _____

5. Easter

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

6. Ordinary Time 2

Dates/length of season _____

Celebrates: _____

Scripture focus _____

Color: _____

The long period of Ordinary Time ends with the feast of which is normally celebrated at the end of the month of

Liturgical Year Match

Column 1 lists the holy days of obligation and several other feast days of the liturgical year. Column 2 lists the dates on which those feasts are celebrated. The task of each group is to match the holy day or feast day with its date, and then to list the days and dates in the order of the liturgical year in column 3.

Holy Days and Feast Days	Dates	Liturgical Calendar
Good Friday	November 2
first Sunday of Advent	December 25
Holy Saturday	the Sunday before Easter
Ash Wednesday	the seventh Sunday after Easter
Epiphany	six Sundays and forty weekdays before Easter
Christmas	fourth Sunday before Christmas
feast of All Saints	the Sunday after Palm Sunday
Palm Sunday	the Thursday before Easter
feast of All Souls	November 1
Holy Thursday	the Friday before Easter
Pentecost	the Sunday after January 1
Easter Sunday	the Saturday before Easter

(This handout is adapted from Therese Brown, Laurie Delgatto, Mary Shrader, and Christine Schmertz Navarro, Catechetical Sessions on Liturgy and the Sacraments, in the Total Catechesis series [Winona, MN: Saint Mary's Press, 2004]. Copyright © 2004 by Saint Mary's Press. All rights reserved.)