Chapter 28 Antiparkinson Drugs
1. Define the terms Parkinson disease and parkinsonism.
2. What causes Parkinson disease?
3. Key Terms in chapter-know the definitions.
4. What are the uses of these drugs?
5. What are general drug actions?
6. What are the adverse drug reactions that can be seen with these drugs?
7. What are the contraindications?
8. What precautions need to be looked at?
9. What are interactions of antiparkinson drugs that need to be looked at?
10. What is important with preadministration assessment?
11. What is important in the ongoing assessment activities the nurse should perform on the patient taking an antiparkinson drug?
12. What are the nursing diagnoses particular to a patient taking an antiparkinson drug? What are the nursing interventions for each nursing diagnosis?
13. What are important points to keep in mind when educating patients about the use of antiparkinson drugs?

Chapter 29 Antiepileptics
1. What is happening in a person with seizures?
2. What are the different classes of drugs used in seizures?
3. Key terms in the chapter.
4. What are the different types of seizures and manifestations?
5. What are the different types of drugs used as antiepileptics?
6. What are the general drug actions?
7. What are the different uses of the drug classes?
8. What are the adverse reactions?
9. What are the contraindications and precautions?”
10. What are important preadministration assessment findings?
11. What are ongoing assessment activities the nurse should perform with the patient receiving an antiepileptic?
12. What are the different nursing diagnoses and interventions for the different nursing diagnosis particular to a patient taking an antiepileptics?
13. What are important points to keep in mind when educating a patient about the use of antiepileptics?
14. What assessments need to be made with a patient having seizures?
15. What questions should be asked of a patient that had a seizure?