

When We Are Singing a Song

Words and Music by Jerry Estes

TOGETHER

When we are singing a song, there is magic, even mystery.
When we are singing a song, there is something you can't touch or see.
Even words cannot explain it. Walls cannot contain it.
When the music starts and we begin to sing,

Something marvelous, amazing, something glorious and grand,
Something powerful is placed within our hands.
We are united, standing strong.
We are better together, when we are singing a song!

When we are singing a song, all our troubles seem to melt away.
When we are singing a song, it can brighten up a dreary day.
Words cannot explain it. Walls cannot contain it.
When we open up and let the music ring,

Something marvelous, amazing, something glorious and grand,
Something powerful is placed within our hands.
We are united, standing strong.
We are better together, when we are singing a song!

Part 1

Marvelous, amazing, glorious and grand, something powerful in our hands!
Marvelous, amazing, glorious and grand, something powerful in our hands!
Marvelous, amazing, glorious and grand, something powerful in our hands!
Marvelous, amazing, glorious and grand, something powerful in our hands!
Marvelous, amazing, glorious and grand, and when we sing,

Part 2

When we are singing a song, we are better , better together.
When we're singing a song, we are strong!
When we are singing a song, we are better , better together.
When we're singing a song, and when we sing

TOGETHER

Something marvelous, amazing, something glorious and grand,
Something powerful is placed within our hands.
We are united, standing strong.
We are better together, when we are singing a song, singing a song,
We are singing, marvelous, amazing, something glorious and grand,
A song!
