

Creating the Unit Circle (cont.)

Note: Three congruent right triangles are created in each different quadrant. Therefore, the length of the sides will be the same in each triangle. The only difference will be the sign (positive or negative) of the numbers.

Complete the unit circle below, being watchful of the signs of the numbers in each quadrant. Fill in each ordered pair. Also fill in the radian measure for each angle.

