Of Mice and Men Review

11 line identification questions
- Who would have said “I like beans with ketchup!”?
- Who would have said something like “Go on and defend yourself, Lennie. Don’t let him hit you like that.”?
- Who would have said “I get lonely and need to talk to someone. Curley at no good to talk to.”?

14 character description multiple choice: know the following characters:
- George
- Lennie
- Curley
- Curley’s wife
- Slim
- Carlson
- Candy
- Crooks

14 vocabulary multiple choice
- Look at the words we have gone over including: pugnacious, debris, liniment, etc.

41 plot questions that will be multiple choice; know about the following:
- Setting of the story
- Mood at the beginning and how it changed
- Soft things Lennie likes
- Initial reaction to George and Lennie
- Candy’s dog
- Relationship between George and Lennie; how it began, how it changed
- Curley’s attitude
- Men’s entertainment at ranch and off the ranch
- Fight between Curley and Lennie
- Treatment of Crooks
- Sleeping quarters
- Dreams of characters: George, Lennie, Curley’s wife
- Situation between Lennie and puppy and Curley’s wife
- Person who understands George at the end of the novel

5 questions about figurative language in the novel—multiple choice
- Similes, irony, personification, foreshadowing, onomatopoeia

5 questions about sentence structure in the novel—multiple choice
- Identifying an adjective clause
- Identifying an adverb clause
- Identifying independent clauses
- Identifying a participial phrase