

STUDY QUESTIONS for Chapter 13

Know terminology in chapter.

Know the different classes.

What is pain and how is it assessed?

What are salicylates and how do they work?

What are the uses of these drugs?

What are adverse reactions with these drugs?

What are lifespan considerations that need to be taken into account with salicylates?

What are signs and symptoms of salicylates?

What are nonsalicylates?

What are the actions of nonsalicylates?

What are the uses of nonsalicylates?

What are adverse reactions with these drugs?

What are the levels and signs and symptoms of acetaminophen toxicity?

What are the lifespan considerations that need to be recognized in patient taking acetaminophen?

What are chronic care considerations that a patient taking acetaminophen need to know?

What is involved in pre-administration assessment?

What are things that need to be monitored in ongoing assessment?

What are the nursing diagnoses with patients on these drugs?

What are the nursing interventions for these nursing diagnoses?

What are the signs and symptoms of GI toxicity?

What client teaching would be done for improved outcomes?

What is the antidote of acetaminophen toxicity?

How and what are the characteristics of the antidote for acetaminophen toxicity?

What client teaching would be done for better outcomes on use of OTC medications?

Know about these medications aspirin, diflunisal, acetaminophen