

Study Questions for Chapters 39

Know terminology in chapter.

Know the different classes of drugs in this chapter.

Be aware of IBD and diseases classified under it.

What is the difference between histamine H2 antagonists and proton pump inhibitors?

What are the actions of aminosalicylates?

What are the uses of aminosalicylates?

Be aware of the adverse reactions of the different classes.

What are the actions of antidiarrheals?

What are the uses of antidiarrheals?

What are the actions of antiflatulents?

What are the uses of antiflatulents?

Know about the different types of laxatives.

What is the action of different types of laxatives?

What are the uses of different types of laxatives?

What are the chronic care considerations with mineral oil?

What are the considerations when doing a pre-administration assessment?

What does the nurse need to consider during an ongoing administration assessment?

What are the nursing diagnoses and nursing interventions with the diagnoses?

What does the nurse need to consider when giving other drugs with antacids?

What teaching/educating needs to be given to client/family?

Be aware of weight management agents.

Know about these drugs: sulfasalazine, adalimumab, tofacitinib, Ustekinumab, Bismuth, difenoxin with atropine, diphenoxylate with atropine, loperamide, simethicone, psyllium, docusate, lactulose, bisacodyl, magnesium preparations