

Unit 6A Test - Chapter 26 & 27
World War One, Russian Revolution, Nationalism
Honors World History
Study Guide

Chapter 26:

1. Know the connection between militarism and imperialism
2. Know which region of Europe was referred to as the "powder keg" of Europe by 1914

3. Know the conflict is depicted in the above map
4. Know the intention of the Fourteen Points
5. Know some of the key elements of the Treaty of Versailles

6. Know the significance of the event depicted above
7. Know about what was in the Zimmermann note, and its impact

8. Know about the new technologies of the 'Great War

9. Know about some of the states that completely changed its name after World War I (based on the map above)

10. Know from which empire Czechoslovakia, Poland, and Yugoslavia its gain independence

11. Be familiar with the part of Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points that is reflected in the above maps

12. Be familiar with the policy of unrestricted submarine warfare

13. Know how the Treaty of Versailles affect postwar Germany

14. Be familiar with the American public's opinion about joining the League of Nations

15. Know the event that ignited the Great War

16. Be familiar with the term “total war”

17. Know why the entry of the United States in World War I a turning point

18. Be familiar with what is depicted in the above graphic.

19. Know the impact of the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk signed in 1918

20. Know how WWI affected the Middle East

21. Be familiar with the significance of WWI on Russia? DOK 2

22. Know why Germany helped Lenin return to Russia in 1917

23. Be familiar with the Bolsheviks

24. Know the impact of this statement: “We shall now occupy ourselves in Russia in building up a proletarian socialist state,” declared Lenin in 1917.
25. Be familiar with the immediate results of the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917
26. Be familiar with the term Totalitarianism
27. Be familiar with Joseph Stalin.